

Goodheart-Willcox Publisher

Correlations to the Alabama Career Cluster Curriculum

Career and Technical Education - Comprehensive
Course: Introduction to Television Production
Grades 9-12

*Television Production © 2006
ISBN 978-1-59070-454-7*

GOODHEART-WILLCOX PUBLISHER
CORRELATION TO THE ALABAMA CAREER CLUSTER
CURRICULUM

Career and Technical Education - Comprehensive
Course – Introduction to Television Production
Grades 9-12

TITLE: Television Production © 2006

CONTENT STANDARD	CORRELATING PAGE NUMBERS
History of Television
Students will:
Explain the growth of communication, including telegraph, wireless, early radio and television, electronic and satellite news gathering technology, and Internet broadcasting.	16–18
Describing the development of networks, cable, and satellite television and their impact on broadcasting	16–29
Describing the impact television has on society and politics	98–99
Assessing recent technological developments in television production	380–383, 386–388
Predicting the future of telecommunications	180–182, 386–388
Safety
Identify safety hazards associated with television production.	192, 193, 194, 195, 197, 204, 206, 218, 237, 238, 299
Practicing precautions while using electrical equipment in television production	237
Demonstrating care for television production gear and tapes in various weather situations	235–241
Utilizing proper care for television lamps and bulbs	192, 193, 194, 195, 197, 204
Identifying live television remote location safety procedures	224–229, 237–240
Organizing and manipulating digital files safely in television production	355–376
Basic Camera Operation

Demonstrate video camera setup, movement, and operation.	69–76, 95–97
Utilize proper handling, care, and storage techniques of camera, tripod, and accessories.	69–76, 107–110, 239–240
Sound
Critique audio quality for television production.	116, 118–120, 130–132, 139
Recognizing audio production components, including microphones, natural sound, voice and audio track, sound-on-tape, sound bites, audio level, interruptible foldback (IFB), and earpiece	123–130, 133, 314–319
Using audio equipment correctly	137–143, 222, 372–373
Lighting
Demonstrate studio and field lighting for television, including back, key, fill, and natural light, and three-point lighting and camera lighting functions.	197–201, 205–212, 235
Examples: camera lighting functions—white balance and black balance, filters	178–180, 187–212, 248
Performance
Demonstrate appropriate on-camera performance, including clear speech, diction, eye contact, gestures, posture, and appearance.	272–273, 285, 309–310
Interviewing
Assess the quality of television interviews and sound bites, including length and content.	150, 156–157, 265–268
Utilizing standard television interview questions	160, 163
Examples: Who, what, where, when, why, how	160, 163
Describing pre-interviewing techniques for television	272–275
Examples: Brainstorming, researching	155
Evaluating television interview footage	360–363

Writing
Demonstrate effective television script writing format.	158–164
Examples: News, audio and video, screenplay, storyboard	148–164
Identifying television conversational writing style, including simple word usage, short sentence structure, “say it, see it” theory, present tense form, active and passive voice, and objective and subjective point of view.	165
Prioritizing information for television production	154–157
Editing
Use applicable editing techniques for television production, including transitions, in-and-out points, trimming, and video sequencing.	338–349, 360–369
Defining basic terms associated with television editing	322, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 332, 334, 338, 340, 341, 342, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 356, 358, 359, 360, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374
Examples: Edit-in-camera, assemble edit, insert edit, jump cuts, linear, nonlinear, flash frames, control track	262–264, 356–360, 362–363, 365–372, 374–376
Commercials
Create a commercial using basic television production skills.	45–52, 216–229, 255–265, 270–271, 280–290
Utilizing basic television advertising terms and techniques, including purpose, process, and persuasive devices	28–29
Examples: Revenue, market research, target audience, ratings, humor, testimonial, bandwagon	28–29
Public Service Announcements
Create a public service announcement using	45–52, 216–229, 255–265, 270–271,

basic television production skills.	280–290
Explaining the purpose of a television public service announcement	152
Examples: Informing, changing opinion, promoting a cause	159
News
Create a news story using basic television production skills.	45–52, 216–229, 255–265, 270–271, 280–290
Recognizing common television news terms, including story types and career positions	32–44, 224–226, 256–261
Determining format, fact selection, teases, and lead sentences in television prerecorded and live news story organization	148–152, 155–157