10.1	The student will determine how maturation affects adolescents. Descriptive Statement: Emphasis is placed on the process of adolescent development as it relates to self-image, self-esteem, physiological changes, identification of human needs, constructive responses to emotions, positive mental health practices, the decision-making process, sources of values, and self-discipline.	782-787, (Research In Action), 786 (Case Study), 787 (Real World Health Skills)
10.2	The student will describe his or her own attitudes concerning expectations of self and interpersonal relationships. Descriptive Statement: Appropriate friendships, dating or group activities, stages of developing relationships, assertiveness, types of love, communication, and individual and family roles are stressed. Discussion will include the expectations of virtual relationships.	87-93, 88 (Health in the Media), 90 (Case Study), 93 (Real World Health Skills), 107, 121-127, 124 (Quiz), 127 (Real World Health Skills), 156, 158, 388-389, 388 (Case Study), 389 (Real World Health Skills), 416-417, 487-502, 488 (Research In Action), 489 (Quiz), 493 (Real World Health Skills), 498 (Health Across the Life Span), 501 (Case Study), 502 (Real World Health Skills), 525, 781
10.3	The student will examine values, morals, and ethics essential to the growth and maintenance of positive human relationships. Descriptive Statement: The universal values of honesty, trustworthiness, self-control, responsibility for self and others, and social justice are discussed as well as the development of moral and ethical systems. The law and meaning of consent for sexual activity are discussed to increase awareness that consent is required before sexual activity along with the social, emotional, and relational impact surrounding sexuality and the virtues of respecting others right to say no. Content will also focus on the prevention of sexual harassment using electronic means. Students will understand the tenets of positive human relationships and that when force, fraud, or coercion are introduced, there is a potential for abuse including human trafficking.	471-476, 475 (Health in the Media), 476 (Real World Health Skills), 495-501, 498 (Health Across the Life Span), 501 (Case Study)
10.4	The student will use the steps in the decision-making process to solve specific problems. Descriptive Statement: Instruction deals with the six steps of the decision-making process as they relate to personal, social, and peer pressures and to media messages. These steps include: identifying the problem; listing all possible alternatives; evaluating the alternatives and their consequences based on personal and familial beliefs as well as societal values; choosing an alternative that promotes the good in self, others, and society; acting on the decision; and evaluating the results. Resources in the community that can assist in evaluating alternatives are identified.	35-38

10.5	The student will recognize the benefits of abstaining from premarital sexual intercourse. Descriptive Statement: Content focuses on the need to consider lifelong goals in relation to pressures for present sexual activity. Topics include readiness for parenthood, the consequences of unintended pregnancy, the effects of sexually transmitted infections, the impact on reputation, mental health and on present and future goals, the importance of adhering to family values, the need to complete educational plans, the burdens of financial responsibilities, and interference with future goals and job opportunities. The positive benefits of postponing sexual activity until marriage are emphasized. Students will identify personal, educational and career goals and the impact an unplanned pregnancy or sexually transmitted infection would have on these goals. In addition, abstinence continues to be emphasized as the only method that is 100 percent effective in preventing pregnancy.	506-509, 509 (Skills for Health and Wellness), 685-686, 686 (Health in the Media)
10.6	The student will recognize alternatives to premarital sexual activity for expressing feelings and affection. Descriptive Statement: Students are guided toward communicating feelings and affection through talking; through expressing ideas, values, and goals; through social and recreational contacts and community service; and through positive body language, caring gestures, and other positive mental health practices, rather than through premarital sexual activity.	494-502, 498 (Health Across the Life Span), 501 (Case Study), 502 (Real World Health Skills)
10.7	The student will explain the factors to be considered in preparing for dating and marriage. Descriptive Statement: Steps involved in relationships are identified, including friendships; dating (casual, double/group, single, blind, steady, and leading to marriage); and mate selection. Steps to developing positive, healthy relationships will also be discussed. Instruction includes the meaning of consent for sexual activity, respecting others right to say no, the social and emotional impact of sexual activity, and identifying the characteristics of dating violence and abusive relationships. The importance of respecting privacy and boundaries for self and others is reviewed and tools are provided to ensure that the student respects the personal privacy and boundaries of others.	494-502, 498 (Health Across the Life Span), 501 (Case Study), 502 (Real World Health Skills), 790, 809
