

Use ESSER Funds to achieve your teaching goals while students master real-world skills

Federal funds are available to help you safely reopen, sustain the safe operation of your school, and address the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on your students. The Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund \(ESSER\) provides federal funding to states to distribute to local educational agencies (LEAs) through 2024. ESSER Fund awards are distributed in the same proportion for each state as Part A of Title I.

It's the Right Time to Invest in Up-to-Date Curriculum with ESSER Funding

LEAs must reserve at least 20% of funds to address learning loss

CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Allowable ESSER funds include any activities covered under the Perkins Act, including professional development, program development, career counseling, or learning platforms for CTE, including the use of technology within CTE programs and programs of study. Address unfinished learning by preparing your students for industry-recognized certifications and providing real-world learning opportunities that will positively impact their futures.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS EDUCATION

In addition to academic needs, ESSER Funds are available to address students' social, emotional, and mental health using resources that provide evidence-based activities, include parent engagement, and improve student engagement. This includes any activity previously funded through your Every Student Succeeds Act Title-funded programs, including Title II and Title IV-A funds, which both support health and physical education.
