Principles of Human Services, 1st Edition

Author: Sharleen L. Kato, Ed.D.

Principles of Human Services is an introductory text designed specifically for high school students interested in learning about occupations in the field of human services. The text focuses on the five career pathways within the human services career cluster. Human services related careers in food and nutrition, clothing, and housing are also included. This student-friendly text provides a look at the aptitudes, attitudes, and skills; education and training; and specialized knowledge needed to succeed in a wide variety of human services careers. Students can also discover which careers they may be interested in pursuing in the future. A wide variety of activities provide built-in opportunities for critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaborative learning.
